The perfect size for the competitive gamer. The XL mousepad series, is the ideal choice for the competitive FPS gamer / PC gamer providing huge room for your mouse, without taking up all the space on your desk. Our special surface, provides a unique blend of speed + control making it ideal for any situation; From nailing headshots in Counter Strike, to landing those skill shots in League of Legends.

All our mousepads also feature stitched edges, which prevents the mouse pad from fraying, greatly increasing its aesthetic and lifespan. And because of our high quality construction, these mousepads are also machine washable.

The Glorious XL (G-XL/G-HXL) comes in two sizes, the 2mm or 5mm thick, giving you a choice for a harder or more cushioned surface.

Still not convinced about our quality? If your mousepad has any issues, we will provide you with a
