Sandberg Solar Powerbank CampLED 10000 is your trusty companion when adventure calls – whether it's a hike in the wilderness, a weekend camping under the stars, or just everyday life where power isn't always at hand. The powerful 10000 mAh capacity gives you plenty of juice for your devices, while the built-in solar panel lets you recharge directly from the sun. The powerbank is robustly built, waterproof, and ready to withstand wind, weather, and wild conditions. And with the powerful built-in LED lamp, you can light up the night, cook in the dark, or find your way back to the tent.
