The InLine® 4-Port Magnetic USB Hub is the ideal solution for expanding systems with additional USB ports. Two USB-C and two USB-A ports allow simultaneous operation of various USB devices such as keyboards, storage media, or adapters.
The aluminum housing offers high stability. The magnetic attachment as well as screw and adhesive mounting allow flexible integration on monitor arms, undersides of tables, or metal surfaces. The maximum data transfer rate is up to 10 Gb/s according to the USB 3.2 Gen.2 standard.
The hub is compatible with Windows, macOS, and Linux and can be used immediately without drivers. Power is supplied bus-powered via the connected host device. Alternatively, an optional 5 V power source can be connected via the USB-C DC input to ensure stable operation of even more power-hungry devices.
