Low-profile legend

Tap your way to victory with this keyboard. With low-profile keycaps and linear Huano mechanical switches, this keyboard offers quicker key presses and up to 50 million keystrokes, meaning you can game comfortably and more precisely for hours on end.

RGB, your way

With 16.8 million colours, the Torix's fully adjustable RGB allows you to pick the perfect colour pattern for your game and style. With the ability to customise the keys, lighting and more via the included software; you can make this keyboard just as unique as your gaming style is.

Put on your armour

Every fighter deserves nothing but the best armour, which is why this keyboard has been fitted with a durable aluminium top plate that not only gives it a sturdy feel, but also ensures it's up for even the most intense of use. What's more, it even has a handy volume knob so you can shift the sound at ease.
