Optimized for durability and precision tracking.

The HyperX Pulsefire Mat Gaming Mouse Pad is built for durability and precision tracking with a highly optimized surface and anti-fray stitching. With an anti-slip rubber underside and comfortable padding, you can enhance your gaming and your comfort. The flat surface provides a smooth, consistent mouse glide and it rolls up for easy portability. Pulsefire Mat is available in a variety of size options to accommodate for different play styles and space requirements.

- The seamless anti-fray stitched edges provide resistance to daily wear and tear.
- Get a smooth, consistent glide thanks to the precision surface. It's designed to be durable, rollable, and portable.
- The textured rubber underside grips tight to keep the mousepad in place during gameplay. Play comfortably on the soft cloth surfaced with inner foam padding.
