The Samsung UE55M80HAU is a 55-inch LED-backlit LCD TV that offers a 4K UHD resolution of 3840 x 2160, ensuring vivid picture quality for a captivating viewing experience. With Mini-LED backlighting and features like Mini LED Dimming, Auto HDR Remastering, and 4K AI Upscaling, images are bright, detailed, and lifelike. The three bezel-less design enhances the modern aesthetics of any room, while the MetalStream design adds durability and style.

Equipped with a dual channel 20 watt speaker system, the audio experience is elevated with features such as Object Tracking Sound Lite, Q-Symphony, and Adaptive Sound+. The television supports various connectivity options, including HDMI, USB, and Bluetooth, making it easy to connect to other devices. Offerings like web browsing, Internet video playback, and compatibility with streaming services like Google Cast further enhance its smart capabilities. The included remote control and support for Bixby ensure effortless navigation, allowing users to enjoy entertainment with ease.
