GODOX AD600BMII Wistro Flash with Bowens Mount

The GODOX AD600BM II flash with Bowens mount is a 600 Ws battery-powered flash that offers a wide range of shooting options both in the studio and on location. It offers flash power adjustment ranging from 1/512 to 1/1 or on a scale of 1.0–10.0 with 0.1-stop precision, allowing you to easily adjust the light intensity to suit the lighting conditions. The model supports HSS synchronization up to 1/8000 s, Multi stroboscopic mode, and the ALT MASK function, which increases your flexibility when shooting various photographic scenarios.

Intuitive Operation and Wireless Communication

The new AD600BM II features a clear, brightness-adjustable color TFT screen that remains clearly visible even when working in direct sunlight. The intuitive menu allows you to quickly change settings, and the t0.1 indicator makes it easy to control the flash duration. The built-in Godox 2.4G receiver works with the Godox X trigger system, offering support for 32 channels and 16 groups, as well as the Fast Sync pairing feature. Additionally, the flash can be triggered via a photocell in S1 and S2 modes or using a sync cable.

High-capacity battery and LED modeling light

Battery power ensures full mobility, and the high-capacity lithium-ion battery allows for up to 500 full-power flashes. Short recharge times let you work without unnecessary interruptions, which is ideal for dynamic photo shoots. The flash is also equipped with a 40-watt LED modeling light with three operating modes, which makes it easier to assess the direction of the light and, if necessary, can be used as lighting for video recording. The popular Bowens mount ensures compatibility with a wide range of softboxes, reflectors, Fresnel lenses, and other light modifiers.
