Neewer GM76 179 cm tripod / monopod

The Neewer GM76 is a professional monopod with a fluid video head that combines functionality, stability and mobility to meet the needs of photographers and filmmakers alike. Extending to a height of as much as 179 cm, the 5-section column allows you to work comfortably in a variety of conditions, and thanks to its folding down to 63 cm and the included strap and carrying bag, the equipment is ideal for outdoor use. Made of durable aluminum alloy, it offers a lifting capacity of up to 6 kg, while maintaining a light weight and compact dimensions.

Head with smooth movement and precise control

The integrated professional head provides smooth 360° rotation and -70° to 90° tilt for easy panoramic, low perspective or overhead shots. A built-in counterbalance and damping control system ensures stable movement, and a spirit level makes it easy to maintain a perfectly even frame. In addition, a quick-release side-mounted coupler allows you to mount and dismount your camera in no time.

Three functions in one device

The Neewer GM76 is not just a monopod - its design also allows it to be used as a table tripod or trekking pole. The detachable, adjustable base with three feet allows 360° rotation and tilting up to 45°, and the ability to position it vertically or horizontally (up to 90°) makes it a versatile tool for sports or reportage photography. The vertical lock ensures stability even on uneven terrain, making it a great companion for creatives working outdoors.

Wide compatibility and convenience of use

The included quick release with built-in L-shaped Allen wrench (with magnetic attachment to prevent loss) has 1/4" and 3/8" threads for easy attachment of cameras, DSLRs, mirrorless cameras, video cameras or tele lenses. An additional 1/4" side thread allows you to attach accessories such as a monitor, LED lamp or "magic arm", giving you even more configuration freedom.

Fast folding, secure grip and durability

Thanks to the quick setting locking clamps, unfolding and folding the monopod is a snap. The ergonomic rubber handle provides a comfortable and secure grip, which translates into comfort even during prolonged use. The Neewer GM76 is an ideal choice for professionals looking for equipment that is reliable, functional and easy to transport.
