The Unitek docking station is designed to expand laptop connectivity for productivity and multimedia workflows. It provides a compact, durable hub that simplifies connecting multiple displays, peripherals, and a wired network to a laptop without sacrificing desk space.

This dock supports versatile video setups with HDMI and DisplayPort outputs that enable up to 4K 60 Hz viewing, and it includes Multi-Stream Transport for extended desktop configurations. Built-in USB 3.x ports and a high-power USB-C port with 100 W Power Delivery support fast data transfers and reliable device charging, while an RJ-45 Ethernet port and a 3.5 mm audio jack keep wired networking and audio connections available. The aluminum alloy body, detachable cradle, and 360° horizontal rotation enhance durability and flexible placement on the desk.
