Everyday laptop protection

Slim, reliable design for everyday protection
The Case Logic LAPS delivers dependable everyday protection in a slim, clean design. Soft EVA padding keeps your laptop safe during daily commutes, and the smooth asymmetrical zipper makes it easy to take your device in and out whenever you need it.

Durable materials for everyday use

Built from high-quality materials, this sleeve is made to last. Its slim profile slides smoothly into a larger bag or works well on its own, and the minimal design fits effortlessly into both work and travel routines.
