The Equip 128969 4-Port USB 3.2 Gen 1/2.0 Hub is a practical and efficient solution for expanding the connectivity of laptops, tablets, and other USB-C enabled devices. Designed with a slim and lightweight profile, it provides users with three USB-C ports and one USB-A port in a single compact hub, making it an ideal companion for work, travel, or home office setups.

Supporting USB 3.2 Gen 1, the hub delivers transfer speeds of up to 5Gbps, allowing for quick synchronization of files, documents, photos, and videos. For devices that require lower-speed connections, USB 2.0 compatibility ensures seamless backward support, making this hub highly versatile and reliable. The inclusion of a USB-A port ensures compatibility with traditional peripherals such as flash drives, keyboards, and mice, while the USB-C ports allow users to connect modern accessories and storage devices effortlessly.
