Product Highlights

The laser measure GLM 50-27 C Professional offers a highly durable design that defies rough conditions while enabling fast documentation and ease of use. Perfect for demanding jobsites, its IP65 protection-certified design features a shock-absorbing housing and resists 1.5-metre drops even on hard concrete. Thanks to quick data transfer via Bluetooth® connectivity and Bosch's MeasureOn App, documentation of measuring results has never been easier. Intuitive handling is ensured by its smart user interface with many helpful features such as a high-end colour display and a handy help function.

The product information provided is for reference purposes only. Technical specifications, photos, descriptions and prices may change without prior notice. The manufacturer and seller are not responsible for possible data discrepancies or typographical errors. We recommend checking the current information before purchasing.
