The HP Everyday laminating pouches protect your important documents in A5 format and make them impress. Like all the laminating pouches in the HP Everyday series, the A5 films have a film thickness of 80 microns and can only be used for hot lamination. These laminating films measure 154 mm x 216 mm and are suitable for all hot laminators according to the manufacturer's micron specification. The transparent foils have a glossy surface and are available in packs of 25 foils.
