Whether you are an amateur or a professional chef, a vegetarian or a meat lover, have a small or a large kitchen, you should always have a certain number of knives. After all, different knives are recommended for optimally preparing different foods. Each knife set contains a varying range of different knives. For example, the five-piece sets in the Grand Class, Grand Gourmet and Spitzenklasse Plus collections cover the whole range of essential kitchen knives – a vegetable knife, a chef’s knife, an all-purpose knife, a meat knife and a bread knife – leaving you optimally equipped. Three-piece sets are also available – mostly consisting of a chef’s knife, a preparing knife and a vegetable knife – for less-demanding requirements. Those who like a splash of colour will be delighted with the bright and colourful sets in the Touch series. As you can see, there are plenty to choose from. Which set is best for you?

Alongside the cutting boards and stainless steel cutlery, the knives in the WMF Touch series are a bright and charming addition to any kitchen. Fresh, modern colours from the handle to the blade make chopping so much fun. The coated blade is made from special blade steel, making it extremely sharp and guaranteeing smooth, reliable cutting. It also ensures that nothing sticks to the blade. The plastic handle sits comfortably and securely in the hand and a matching blade guard allows you to store the knife safely in a drawer. The series consists of all-purpose and chef's knives in four different colours. WMF also offers cutting boards and kitchen scissors in the colours to match.
