Stay active and FEEL GOOD with the premium Leitz Ergo Active standing mat, carefully designed to promote natural movement and provide lasting comfort for anyone who spends long hours standing at work—whether in the office, home office, or other environments. Prolonged standing on hard surfaces can lead to discomfort and strain on the feet, legs, and lower back, making proper support essential for maintaining a healthy and productive workday.

This ergonomically designed anti-fatigue mat features multiple massage zones that help prevent and relieve stress, ease muscle tension, improve blood circulation, and support stretching. The raised edges naturally encourage foot movement and keep your body active and engaged throughout the day, while the elevated massage points provide soothing relief for your feet—even when wearing socks.

This premium standing mat is strong and durable, with high-quality cushioned foam that helps reduce foot fatigue and support good posture. The removable massage ball offers deeper, targeted
