The P C375 stands at the forefront of eco-friendly printing technology, designed with a commitment to sustainability. Its mainframe is made from over 50% post-consumer recycled plastic materials, minimising the ecological footprint throughout its lifecycle. This smart printer uses minimal plastic in its packaging, and the packaging for the toner containers are completely plastic-free. With a low Typical Energy Consumption (TEC) value of 0.32kWh, this A4 colour printer is ideal for organisations prioritising environmental responsibility. It has also earned the Blue Angel Mark, signifying its adherence to the most stringent criteria for environmental, health, and functional excellence.
