Replacement earpads for the BNX100XT and LH900XW Headphones

Extend the life of your BNX100-XT or LH900XW headphones with these replacement earpads, designed to keep your headphones looking and feeling as good as new. Whether you're looking to refresh your headphones after extensive use or ensure hygienic conditions in shared environments, these earpads are the perfect solution.

Constructed from high-quality protein leather, these earpads offer more than just durability. They provide a soft, luxurious feel, ensuring optimum comfort during extended listening sessions, whether for work, travel, or relaxation. The plush padding conforms gently to your ears, creating a comfortable seal that enhances both passive noise isolation and audio performance.

Easy to install and built to last, these replacement earpads will keep your BNX100-XT or LH900XW headphones in top condition, so you can enjoy your favorite audio content with the same premium
