The PSM Primo multi-sander impresses users with its intuitive controls and a unique design. It is ideal for sanding corners, edges and smaller to medium-sized surfaces. A micro Velcro-type fastening system means that sanding paper can be replaced quickly while the microfilter system keeps the area clean during the job. The sanding tool features a good ratio of power to weight coupled with a modern design and a slim, compact shape. The power of the 50 watt motor guarantees good results. Thanks to the softgrip coating and side recesses, it is easy to hold and operate with just one hand.
