Durable eco-friendly backpack for laptops up to 16"

The better bag

The Avana might look like an incredibly stylish backpack, but would you guess that it used to be 11 plastic bottles? With fabric made using recycled PET bottles, this backpack is not only cool but also eco-friendly too!

Give me space

Transport everything you need with this laptop backpack. With a whopping 20L capacity and a spacious padded interior, you'll have plenty of space for your laptop (up to 16"), all your accessories, and still be left with room to spare!

Carry in comfort

Experience a new kind of backpack with the Avana – the comfortable kind. Especially designed to keep you feeling good, it has a soft padded mesh back and mesh shoulder straps that can easily be adjusted to give you the perfect fit.

It's got pockets!

The Avana carries your laptop and so much more. A side pocket has space for a water bottle to keep you hydrated throughout the day, and an extra zippered front pocket enables you to easily store accessories like your phone or charger. So convenient!

On the safe side

What good is a laptop backpack if it doesn't keep your laptop safe? This backpack is certainly up for the challenge. Both shockproof and weatherproof, it'll keep your most important device protected from bumps, bashes and any weird weather.
