Self-levelling 360° line laser for high-precision alignment across the entire room with excellent visibility

Providing excellent visibility for high-precision alignment across the entire room, the UniversalLevel 360 is what happens when accuracy, versatility, and convenience are fused in a line laser. Self-levelled projection of a 360° horizontal and a 120° vertical laser line makes for convenient and quick aligning, while green laser technology provides significantly improved visibility, ensuring convenient working even under bright lighting. Installing lowered ceilings or curtain rails at the same height? Aligning items like shelves and pictures at a specific reference? Or creative tiling tasks? Go ahead and let your creativity run free, as the incline function helps you by also enabling work with diagonal lines.
