This network video recorder (NVR) features a compact 1U chassis design and supports up to four channels, making it suitable for small-scale video surveillance setups. It is equipped with four Power over Ethernet (PoE) ports, which simplify the installation process by allowing both power and data to be transmitted over a single network cable to each connected IP camera.

The device supports a maximum recording resolution of 6 megapixels, ensuring high-quality video capture. It also offers simultaneous HDMI and VGA outputs to provide flexible options for monitoring and playback. The unit includes a single SATA interface for hard drive connectivity, supporting up to 6TB of storage, which allows for extensive video archiving.

For network connectivity, this NVR includes one RJ-45 10M/100M self-adaptive Ethernet interface. It also features H.265+ compression technology, which significantly reduces bandwidth and storage
