PT-H101GB Handheld Labelling Machine

With its lightweight, compact design that’s easy to hold and use, easy-to-read display with print preview and creative labelling using the Auto Design or Deco Mode functions, the P-touch H101GB is the ideal labelling machine to use around the office or home.

By using one of the 9 font styles available, choosing from over 170 symbols and 7 decorative frames, customise your labels the way you want. An AC adapter slot is abailable for use with the optional AC adapter, or standard AAA alkaline batteries can be used for ultimate portability.
The built-in cutter ensures your labels are printed at the correct length, and gives a professional clean cut every time.
