Compact black-and-white multifunction printer built for the way you work.

Today's work demands tech that works, wherever work happens. Especially for small satellite teams and professionals who need printers that are easy to set up, simple to use and don't require IT support. Xerox technology provides what people need to stay focused, connected and productive — without sacrificing quality, space or simplicity.

The product information provided is for reference purposes only. Technical specifications, photos, descriptions and prices may change without prior notice.
