Always the right amount of power with Power Delivery profiles

The AC2010 charges your laptop with just the right amount of power using five predefined Power Delivery profiles. The charger communicates with your laptop to find the right profile. This communication ensures the most efficient and effective charging.

Universal compatibility

The AC2010 USB-C Wall Charger is compatible with most popular laptop brands including Dell, HP, Lenovo, Google Pixelbook, Apple MacBook Air M1/M2.

Works with both Apple and Android smartphones and tablets

Connect your Android smartphone/tablet and latest-generation iPhone/iPad to the ACT 65W USB-C Wall Charger to charge your mobile device.

Long cable: 2 meters

The AC2010 is a wall charger that plugs directly into the power outlet. The charger has a convenient fixed long USB-C cable of 2 meters. You can move more freely with your notebook without having to sit next to the power outlet. The AC2010 fits easily into your bag.

4 Power protection levels

We take safety seriously. That’s why the AC2010 Wall Charger is equipped with over-temperature protection, over-voltage protection, over-current protection and short-circuit protection.
