Height adjustable Full Motion Monitor Arm for XXL and Ultrawide Monitors - plus USB Connectivity

Elevate your productivity, gaming, and multimedia experiences with the Ultra Heavy-Duty Aluminum Gas Spring Single Monitor Desk Mount. Designed to support a wide range of monitor sizes and weights, this premium mount is your ultimate solution for a clutter-free, ergonomic workspace.

Light-touch height adjustment

A gas-spring cylinder makes it easy to raise or lower the display anywhere from 325 to 655 mm (12.8 to 25.8 in.) so it can sit in the best place for your line of sight. Adjust the tension according to the weight of your monitor to reposition it effortlessly.

Full-motion view optimization

The full-motion arm lets you extend, tilt and swivel across multiple axes, so it's easy to create an ergonomic workspace that fits your exact needs. You can also rotate your monitor from landscape to portrait orientation to view photos in portrait mode or see longer pages and blocks of code without having to scroll down.

Convenient USB Connectivity

Reduce desk clutter and the need for additional USB hubs or docking stations with the USB-C and USB-A pass-through ports at the base. Use the included cables with USB Type-A male to Type-A female and USB Type-A male to USB Type-C female connectors to extend your laptop's ports through the base for more convenient connectivity. These ports support SuperSpeed transfer rates up to 5 Gbps, perfect for your peripherals and for charging/syncing mobile devices.

Flexible Mounting Options

Whether you prefer a C-clamp for desk edges or grommet mounting through a drilled hole, our mount provides both options. The quick-release VESA-plate design allows for easy installation and removal of your display.

Built to Last

Constructed from high-quality aluminum and finished with a durable powder coating, this heavy-duty desk mount is built for longevity. The built-in tension adjustment ensures stability, accommodating the weight of your monitor effortlessly.

Clean cable management

Keep your workspace tidy and organized with the built-in cable management system. Minimize clutter and maintain a clean, professional appearance.
