You’re In Charge

Whether you're in need of a reliable power source during travel, commuting, events, or outdoor activities, the Charge 'n' Go Power Bank ensures you stay connected and powered up.

The versatile bi-directional Type-C® port ensures compatibility with a wide range of devices, while the LED indicator keeps you informed of your power status at a glance.

Trusted On-the-Go Energy

The overcharge protection in the power bank protects your device for a safe and powerful charge.

The power bank is accompanied with a Type-C to Type-C cable and an additional metal ring that can be attached to the phone or phone case to provide a strong magnetic hold if required.

2-year warranty comes as standard.
