SMALLRIG 3986 Universal Tripod Cart

The SMALLRIG 3986 is a universal tripod cart that makes it easy to move your equipment smoothly while filming and capturing dynamic shots. The design features adjustable arms with a range of 298 to 435 mm, allowing it to adapt to various tripod models and leg spread angles. The large wheels handle a variety of surfaces well, and the ability to lock them helps keep the equipment in place. The dolly supports setups with a maximum load of 15 kg, allowing you to use even more complex photography and video configurations.

Adjustability and Stable Equipment Placement

The extendable arms allow you to quickly adapt the cart to the tripod you’re using, increasing its versatility when working with different equipment. Wheel locks reduce the risk of the tripod shifting accidentally due to uneven ground or a slight bump, making it easier to set up a stable shooting position. The aluminum alloy construction combines adequate rigidity with the ability to conveniently transport the accessory between different work locations.

Foldable design for easy transport

Once you’re done working, the SMALLRIG 3986 dolly can be folded up, reducing the space needed for storage and transport. The integrated handle makes it easy to carry, and the included carrying bag helps keep your equipment secure and organized while on the go. The cart measures 430 × 155 × 125 mm and weighs approximately 1,800 g, making it a practical addition to any mobile film or photography setup.
