You haven't seen anything as fearsome as the Lava Saber-Toothed Tiger! His orange-red fur looks like liquid lava, and his mane and back are covered with sharp lava crystals blazing like flickering flames. Most impressive of all, however, are the gigantic fangs that protrude from his mouth like long knives. Wow!

Uh-oh, what's that terrifying roar? It’s the Lava Saber-Toothed Tiger! He's furious because someone dared to intrude upon his realm. He doesn't take that lightly! He opens his ferocious mouth, revealing giant fangs that protrude like knives, and raises his powerful paw, ready to strike at any time. The Lava Saber-Toothed Tiger shakes his blazing mane and brandishes the sharp lava crystals on his back for all to fear. Who is foolish enough to take him on?
