photos, which you can access via a code. For example, images of the grandchildren can be sent as an update to the frame at Grandpa and Grandma's every month. Or send your most beautiful pictures to your friends of your latest hike through the Scottish Highlands. In combination with the comfortable touch display and the Frameo app, the BRAUN WiFi Digiframes are a modern and elegant tool for digital image presentation. An enrichment for those who enjoy viewing and sharing their digital images without a smartphone or tablet in the easiest way.
