Nearly transparent, the collectible unicorn Citronella shimmers with a yellowy glow. This sweet foal is dusted from head to toe with so much glitter that she sparkles like the night sky! We love the tattoo on her flank of a cluster of delicate butterflies. Along with our other collectible unicorns, Citronella is part of the most beautiful herd in BAYALA®. Ready to treat your kids to some fun?

The collectible unicorn Citronella can be a little shy sometimes, but when she’s out with her friends, she really lets go. Just look at her now, romping enthusiastically across the meadow! Her gorgeous glittery coat beams in the sun, and the butterflies on her flank seem to be dancing in the light. Citronella is happy because she’s with her friends. Each unicorn is unique, with a striking tattoo on their flank. Citronella gives her friends a fabulous poster of the herd — just the thing for your playroom!
