Entirely modular, the Jungle Stronghold can be reconfigured however you like. Its stone catapult is extremely effective at repelling attackers. Anyone who gets closer must make it past the massive grabber arm—but don't let the Jungle Saber-Toothed Tiger catch you first!

The Jungle Saber-Toothed Tiger doesn't mess around when it comes to defending the Jungle Crystal. This precious treasure is hidden deep inside the Jungle Stronghold, protected by a stone catapult and a giant grabber arm. Anyone daring enough to approach the Jungle Stronghold must be careful—if you stumble into the grabber arm trap, you won’t be getting out!
