HUAWEI SUN2000-10K-MAP0 Solar Inverter

Model: 01076946

Manufacturer: HUAWEI TECHNOLOGIES

EAN: 4262431424718

Product Code: 1730157

R28,094

The Huawei FusionSolar Smart Energy Controller SUN2000-10K-MAP0 is an efficient DC to AC power inverter designed to optimize energy conversion for residential and commercial applications. Operating effectively in a wide range of environmental conditions, this unit functions in temperatures from -25°C to 60°C and a humidity range of 0 to 100% RH, ensuring robust performance regardless of the climate. Designed with compliance to numerous international standards, it offers reliable protection and safety features including overcurrent, overvoltage, and short-circuit protection, contributing to enhanced energy efficiency with an efficiency rating of 98.6%.

Equipped with LED indicators for easy monitoring and support for remote management via RS-485 and Wi-Fi, the SUN2000-10K-MAP0 facilitates seamless integration into smart energy systems. It features advanced functions like residual current monitoring, battery reverse charging, and anti-islanding protection, making it a versatile choice for users seeking a dependable energy solution.

This inverter integrates technology to adapt to various input voltage requirements, ranging from DC 160 - 1000 V, providing flexibility and reliability essential for optimal energy use.

Product Description: Huawei FusionSolar Smart Energy Controller SUN2000-10K-MAP0 - DC to AC
