Eww! The Stone Worm is really ugly! Its thick body is made up of many armoured links that wind through the ground and between the rocks. He has lots of bright green spikes on his back. He has sharp teeth, which he uses to bite his opponents. He's hard to shake off! Get out of here!

You would never guess from his appearance, but the Stone Worm is faster than most other residents in ELDRADOR®. But that only applies in the soil. Underground, he digs through the ground no time and then suddenly breaks out between the attackers’ feet. Intruders are always so surprised by the attack from nowhere that he regularly emerges as the winner of the duels. If his surprise attack fails, he is so agile that he’s hard to grab hold of. A tough opponent!
