Because hybrid working can be noisy, Evolve2 75 comes with 8 strategically-placed microphones and the advanced beamforming technology. So even when the kids are home, the train's crowded or the office is a little busy, with the world-leading call technology, they'll hear you and not your surroundings. Evolve2 75 meets Microsoft's Open Office requirements, making it the ideal choice for busy open-plan workspaces. The advanced triple digital chipset powers a ground-breaking Jabra algorithm, which improves the differentiation between voice and background noise to make your calls even sharper. Evolve2 75 keeps the background noise in the background - and off your calls. The Evolve series is already miles ahead when it comes to industry-leading professional-grade call performance, but Evolve2 75 takes best-in-class. It delivers the world-leading call performance Jabra headsets are so famous for. In performance mode, with the microphone boom-arm down, it's specifically optimized for outstanding calls in open-plan offices and other noisy places, and meets Microsoft's Open Office requirements.
