Huion H420X graphics tablet

The Huion H420X is a graphics tablet with a working area of 106 × 66 mm, designed for use with computers and mobile devices. It is only 7 mm thick and weighs just 105 g, so it fits easily into a bag or backpack. It comes with a PW100 stylus that works with electromagnetic resonance technology - it doesn't require charging, supports 8192 levels of pressure and ensures smooth, accurate reproduction of every movement. The device works with Windows, macOS, Linux, Android and ChromeOS.

Precise recording of stylus movement

The included Huion PW100 stylus works with electromagnetic resonance (EMR) technology and does not require charging. It offers a reading resolution of 5080 LPI, detects 8192 levels of pressure and captures movement with an accuracy of ± 0.3 mm. With a reading frequency of more than 300 PPS, each stroke is transferred to the screen almost instantly, allowing for lag-free operation. Thanks to its wide compatibility and compact form factor, the Huion H420X tablet will prove useful not only for drawing or graphics editing - it's also a good tool for handwriting, remote work and rhythm games such as OSU!

Wide compatibility

The device works not only with computers, but also with smartphones with Android version 6.0 or higher. Simply connect the tablet with a USB-C cable (included) to start phone mode and draw even when you're away from home or the office. The device is also compatible with ChromeOS 88 or later, as well as Linux, Windows and macOS. It also works with popular software such as Photoshop, Illustrator, GIMP, Krita, Clip Studio and SAI.

Ergonomic design and comfortable operation

The Huion H420X graphics tablet is designed with mobility in mind. Its small size and light weight make it easy to transport, and the tapered wrist rest reduces hand fatigue during prolonged work. The single-panel housing enhances user comfort and makes the device easier to clean. In addition, the Huion H420X allows operation in four orientations - 0°, 90°, 180° and 270°. Thus, it can be used comfortably by both right-handed and left-handed people.
