The Transcend ESD410C portable external hard drive combines durability, security, and speed into a compact and rugged device. Designed for those who demand reliability, it offers up to 3 m drop protection and IPX5 water resistance, ensuring your data is safe even in harsh environments. With a 1 TB capacity, it utilizes 3D NAND technology and an SLC cache for improved performance and storage space. Security is paramount, featuring 256-bit AES hardware encryption to protect sensitive data. High-speed data transfers are made possible with a USB 3.2 Gen 2x2 interface, reaching speeds of up to 20 Gbps. For convenience, it comes with both USB-C to USB-A and USB-C to USB-C cables, making it compatible with a variety of devices. Whether you're a professional on the go, an avid adventurer, or someone who values data security, the ESD410C is designed to meet your needs.
