Come to the dark colorful side of the force with the Navis F360 ARGB. And dress warmly, because 3 Fluctus 120 PWM ARGB fans and a powerful cooler will unleash an arctic storm in your PC.

We combined them with a silent pump block with ceramic bearing and PWM control. It's a small set with great potential – it keeps the temperature as low as the best air conditioning and works flawlessly with all popular sockets.

The Navis F360 ARGB is like an air conditioner for your PC – it keeps all the components pleasantly cool and glows like northern lights from outer space. Don't even try to count the compliments from your buddies, there will be too many.

The Navis F360 ARGB coolly meets the requirements of demanding CPUs – all thanks to a silent pump block with ceramic bearings and PWM controller. Together with three Fluctus 120 PWM ARGB
