Soft to the touch, firm in your grip

The Silicone Case has a soft-touch finish that feels great in your hand and helps you keep a secure grip. Its textured surface adds extra comfort, making it easy to use your phone for long stretches.

Reliable protection, made responsibly

The Silicone Case is made up of 23 % plastic, with at least half of that plastic coming from post-consumer materials (PCM). Plus, the microfiber lining inside helps shield your phone from scratches and impacts.
