A soft touch within your grasp

Crafted with precision, the inner part of the Kindsuit Case is lined with durable micro twill, offering a soft feel that not only adds a touch of elegance, but also keeps scratches at bay when you go about your day.

Crafted with recycled materials

The Kindsuit Case is made up of 23 % plastic, with at least half of that plastic coming from post-consumer materials (PCM), showing that good design can also be kind to the planet.
