The body of the backpack is made of durable materials providing protection from water and changeable weather conditions. The back panel of the Pallad 550 has a special mesh and air flow channels, improving the comfort of wearing especially on hot days.

TACTICAL SIMPLIFICATION

The right pocket for every device and every situation. The main compartment has numerous dedicated pockets: for mouse, mousepad, powerbank, various peripherals and headphones. In contrast, the front panel was equipped with an organizer for office accessories, keys, or a flash drive. They're just waiting to be filled.

WITHIN YOUR REACH

In addition to space for gaming equipment, the Pallad 550 also has an easily accessible stiffened protective pocket for delicate accessories such as sunglasses. As well as four side pockets for storage of bottled water or other things you need quick access to. In addition, the side pocket for the phone has an ability to pass cables outside and inside the backpack.

WEAR THE WAY YOU WANT

The Pallad 550 gives each user maximum wearability. The regulated straps will allow you to adjust your backpack to the parameters of your body. What's more, they are equipped with special reflectors that provide a high level of safety. A sturdy handle placed at the top of the backpack allows for convenient carrying.
