Meet the new GENESIS Pallad 420 backpack, created for discerning gamers who need a small and functional solution to carry their equipment in everyday situations. The Pallad 420 is comfortably lightweight, compact in design and versatile in use. Thanks to its many compartments and hooks, you will easily organize all your accessories, keeping them neat and convenient. What else does the lightest backpack in the GENESIS range have to offer?

PROTECTION FOR YOUR GEAR

With the Palladium 420, you are assured that your gear will arrive safely where you need it. The backpack's main compartment is padded and cushioned, providing maximum security for laptops up to 15.6 inches. Additional pockets and compartments are designed to accommodate, for example, a mouse, keyboard, standard-sized mouse pad and headphones or pad. Inside you'll also find a mesh pocket with a zipper closure, ideal for carrying small items and accessories, and 2 smaller compartments on the sides for drinks or additional equipment.

NEVER FEAR ABOUT ABRASION OR SPLASHING

The GENESIS Pallad 420 backpack is made of top-grade polyester, which is highly resistant to splashes, abrasions, tears and scratches. The zippers, both in the main compartment and in the pocket on the front, are waterproof, further protecting your gear from adverse weather conditions.

LIGHTWEIGHT, MOBILE, COMFORTABLE

Carrying the Pallad 420 backpack is a pure delight! Thanks to the ergonomic back, padded with soft foam covered with mesh material, you will avoid back pain and overheating, even on a warm day and with a maximally loaded backpack. The comfort is further enhanced by the contoured foam-padded shoulders. The backpack is also extremely lightweight, which, combined with the possibility of adjusting the straps, ensures maximum wearing comfort in any situation: at school, university or during city trips.

MEDAL-WORTHY FUNCTIONALITY

Finally, we did not forget about additional features that make the Pallad 420 backpack even more practical. The trolley strap allows you to carry it comfortably on a travel suitcase, and the red handles on the side pockets are perfect for attaching a carabiner. The zipper of the main pocket has a detachable key holder in the form of a lanyard with the GENEISIS logo, and additional equipment can also be attached to chain-type handles on the sides of the backpack. The stylish black and red color scheme makes the Palladium 420 a perfect match with any outfit and styling, making it not only functional, but also a fashionable accessory for gamers of all ages.
