Lanberg's wireless network interface card (NIC) provides a stable Wi-Fi connection to all devices operating in the 802.11 b/g/n standard, including routers, access points and repeaters. External antenna enables a greater transmission range than nano/mini variant of this network card. The device has been designed to work with transmitting devices in close optical proximity. Compact dimensions allow for comfortable work with mobile devices, and in addition, the detachable external antenna increases coverage, speed and stability of transmission so that the NIC card can be used in stationary network solutions.
