Sandberg DC Power Station 72000 is your mobile power hub, with a capacity of 72,000 mAh / 270 Wh. You get two powerful 100W USB-C PD ports, two USB-A QC3.0 ports with up to 22W, and a 12V DC output, so you can charge your laptop, tablet, phone, and much more. All five outputs can be used simultaneously! It comes with both male and female adapters for the car's 12V socket, so you can easily connect car equipment, a cooler, or a pump directly. Supports charging via both USB-C and solar panel (MPPT) through the DC input. With a built-in LED lamp, you're ready for anything from camping to power outages.
