The Lanberg FF01 series rack offers a sturdy solution for organizing equipment in a secure environment. Its 19-inch rack size and 15 rack units provide space while maintaining a compact form factor. The rack features a flat pack design for easy transport and assembly, while the perforated front and rear doors enhance airflow with built-in cooling fans, ensuring optimal temperature management for mounted devices.

Constructed from durable materials, including 2 mm rail and 1.2 mm panel thicknesses, this cabinet rack can support a weight limit of up to 800 kg. Additional features, such as side locks, legs, and wheels with brakes, contribute to its stability and versatility as a freestanding unit. Compliant with standards such as ETSI and IP20, the Lanberg FF01 series rack is a practical choice for various system accessory applications.
