Make your important A4 documents impress with HP Everyday laminating pouches. With a film thickness of 80 microns and dimensions of 216 mm x 303 mm, these laminating pouches can be used with all hot laminators in accordance with the micron count specified by the manufacturer. The films are designed exclusively for hot lamination and have a glossy finish. Ideal for occasional use, the transparent films are available in this practical Small Pack containing 25 pieces. Do you have a larger requirement? Then the foils in the Big Pack with 100 pieces are the right choice.
