A key symptom of respiratory illnesses is diminished lung function, which may lead to lower blood oxygen levels. If monitoring your blood oxygen levels matters to you, the Braun Pulse oximeter 1 makes it comfortable, clear and convenient. Take readings effortlessly and accurately with the simple finger clip design. See results at a glance with the back-lit, rotating OLED display. And keep it close, always, with the handy lanyard attachment.

- Measures oxygen saturation (%SpO2), pulse rate, as well as pulse amplitude
- Reliable results clinically validated to meet European standards (CE-marked)
- Comfortable finger clip design
- Clear results presented on back-lit, rotating display
- Convenient lanyard attachment for on-the-go use
- Suitable for adults (>18+) with health conditions such as COPD, pneumonia or sleep apnea
- Also ideal for athletes
