Deer Run RW600 Magnetic Rowing Machine (White)

The DeerRun RW600 is a modern magnetic rowing machine that provides quiet and smooth movement with minimal impact on your joints. With 32 resistance levels, a sturdy construction, and PitPat app support, this machine offers a full-body workout without leaving home. Its compact size, comfortable handles, and built-in phone or tablet holder make this model a great choice for both beginners and regular exercisers.

Full-body workout without strain

The RW600 is ideal for those looking for a workout that engages almost all muscle groups without straining the knees or spine. The rowing motion strengthens the back, legs, arms, and abdominal muscles, while improving circulation and endurance. It is a great choice not only for burning calories, but also as part of rehabilitation or daily activity.

32 resistance levels - adjust the intensity

The device offers up to 32 levels of adjustable magnetic resistance, allowing you to precisely tailor your workout to your abilities and goals. From a light warm-up to an intense cardio workout, everything runs smoothly. The quiet operation of the mechanism means you can train at any time of the day without disturbing other members of your household.

PitPat app - more than just rowing

The RW600 connects via Bluetooth to the PitPat app, which offers interactive workouts with coaches, online competitions, races in virtual environments, and 3D games. You can track your progress, join challenges, and earn rewards. The app also syncs with Apple Health, Google Health, and Strava, allowing you to fully monitor your activity.

Comfort of use - well-thought-out details

The long slide rail (over 95 cm) allows for a full range of motion, even for taller users. Non-slip handles provide a secure grip, and a bright LED display keeps you informed about time, distance, number of repetitions, and calories burned. The built-in smartphone or tablet holder allows you to conveniently track apps, watch videos, or listen to music while you train.
