extremely powerful and reliable solution in any situation.

Durability and safety

Despite its powerful performance, the Lipo Gens Ace G-Tech battery features a relatively light weight of just 550 grams. Thanks to its compact dimensions of 137 x 42 x 42 mm, it is easy to install in helicopter models, while providing enough capacity and power to power your equipment for a long time. The battery is also equipped with an XT90 connector, which guarantees a secure and safe connection to the rest of the power system.

Compatibility with popular models

The Gens Ace G-Tech is ideal for 500 and 600 class helicopter models, and is perfect for models such as the Align Trex 500, Align Trex 600, Align Trex 550E, or Gaii brand helicopters. Thanks to its high power and performance, this battery is a reliable choice for modelers who are looking for a reliable power supply for advanced flying machines.
