LiberNovo SpaceSync Footrest Mat (Gray)

The LiberNovo StepSync mat was designed specifically for the LiberNovo StepSync footrest. A 20-mm-thick layer of memory foam with slow recovery adapts to your feet, evenly distributes pressure, and enhances comfort. The soft PU surface feels pleasant to the touch, and the non-slip rubber base keeps the mat securely in place, ensuring comfort all day long.

Comfort you'll feel from the very first use

The 20-millimeter core of slow-recovery foam conforms to the contours of your feet, providing soft and stable support during long periods of sitting. By evenly distributing pressure across the entire surface of the foot, the mat helps reduce fatigue, promotes better circulation, and alleviates muscle tension.

Soft Surface and Stability on Any Surface

This accessory features a soft-to-the-touch surface made of PU leather, designed for use barefoot or in socks. The inner core made of memory foam provides adequate cushioning, while the non-slip rubber base effectively prevents the mat from sliding while using the footrest.

Perfectly tailored to the LiberNovo StepSync

The product has been precisely tailored to the LiberNovo StepSync footrest, ensuring optimal foot support and comfort during daily use. It is recommended to use the mat only barefoot or in socks.
